

2007 Summer Concert Series

• The Little Church Around the Corner •

The HET Consort

Thursday, July 19th, 7:30 p.m.

World Premier of Perpetua Melomania II by Jeff Hijlkema, as well as works by Victor Kioulaphides, John Crafton and Luca Mereu.

The HET Consort is a dynamic and acclaimed mandolin chamber orchestra based in Zwolle, Netherlands. Besides performing original music, the orchestra's principal aim is to bring the possibilities of the mandolin orchestra to the attention of music lovers everywhere.

Andrew Brownell

Tuesday, July 24th, 7:30 p.m.

All Bach program, including the Dorian Toccata and Fugue, Prelude and Fugue in A minor, BWV 543 and Trio Sonata #6, BWV 564

Andrew Brownell is an accomplished organist and pianist, winner of numerous international prizes, including first place at the 2005 J.N. Hummel Competition in Bratislava. He is the assistant organist at St. James Episcopal Church in Los Angeles.

Claudia Dumschat

Thursday, August 2nd, 7:30 p.m.

All Bach program: Fantasia and Fugue in G minor, BMV 542, Trio Sonata #5, BWV 529, Prelude and Fugue in G Major, BWV 541, Toccata, Adagio and Fugue in C Major, BWV 564

Claudia Dumschat is the Organist and Choirmaster at the Church of the Transfiguration.

- All tickets $20 ($15 students and seniors)
- Concerts take place at The Church of the Transfiguration, 1 E. 29th Street, New York City
- Call (212) 684-6770 for more information

